

I want to express that I do not want my First Amendment right to pay a change and receive legal information from XM Radio infringed upon by any proposed legislation or regulations. XM is free enterprise, competing in the marketplace of ideas and entertainment. It should, and must be free from governmental interference and regulation as to any lawful content which it chooses to broadcast.